

Best in show

Top finds from London Design Week, selected by Amelia Thorpe

◀ Ode to joy

From the Hothouse collection, the Peony cushion, £99, in velvet will add a burst of joyful colour to any interior, from Andrew Martin (020-3887 6113; www.andrewmartin.co.uk)

▶ Soft hue

Porta Romana's elegant Perfume Bottle lamp has been reimagined in delicate new colours for spring. Shown here in Pearl Blue, it costs £1,233, shown with a 10in Slim Straight Oval shade in Natural linen, £166 (020-7362 0440; www.portaromana.com)

▲ French charm

Inspired by the sun-drenched gardens of the south of France, Castellane is a hand-painted design, printed and woven in France on a 100% cotton ground. It costs £88 per m, and is also available as a wallpaper, £168 per 10m roll, from Manuel Canovas (020-8877 6400; www.manuelcanovas.com)

▶ Natural beauty

The Hinton table lamp, £636, is hand carved in alabaster, its tapered square column inspired by Modernist style. It is shown with a 17in Warwick shade in Lily linen, £122, both from Vaughan (020-7349 4600; www.vaughandesigns.com)

▲ Old meets new

Fiesta is a new fabric collection from George Spenceo Designs, one of Britain's longest-established fabric houses, founded in the 1940s. The lively mid-century-inspired design in 100% cotton is available in Sand Dune, Ocean and Fruit Salad colourways and costs £140 per m (020-7684 3003; www.georgespenoer.com)

◀ Shelf life

Made from bleached oak with a white water wash, the decorative detailing on the Bobbin wall bookshelf adds a playful spin to a classic piece. It costs £1,896 from Julian Chichester (020-7622 2028; www.julianchichester.com)