

New furniture, wallpaper, rugs and accessories to enjoy, selected by Amelia Thorpe

▲ Fresh green

Inspired by 18th-century French prints, Birds Fortescue has created the Loire Collection, including this Magnolia tablecloth, from £170, Foliage candlesticks, £30.50 each, Foliage bowls, from £19 each, and Pencil Out tumblers, from £15 each (01328 851651; www.birdsfortescue.co.uk)

▲ Bin selection

Cheer up your desk area with this handmade Greek Fret waste paper bin, £35, from Pentreath & Hall (020-7430 2526; www.pentreath-hall.com)

▲ Sustainable choice

Specialising in luxury rugs, Jennifer Manners offers a sustainable performance range made from recycled plastic bottles, which might otherwise find their way into the ocean or landfill. Surprisingly soft underfoot, the durable rugs are resistant to stains, easy to wipe clean and also suitable for outdoor use, with new Provence designs, Antibes and Marseille, £355m sq, shown here (020-3900 0667; www.jennifermanners.com)

▲ Centre piece

Richly coloured, close-grained African walnut has been used to make the Tiffany Oval dining table, finished with two bands of brass roundels. It costs

▲ Lazy day

The Emily wrought-iron day bed shown here in Ivory, £795, from Wrought Iron and Brass Bed Co, offers a useful place to accommodate an unexpected overnight guest or simply for relaxing away an afternoon (01485 542516; www.wroughtironandbrass.com)