

X marks the spot

Designed by Danish duo Hvidt & Mølgaard in 1959, the 'X' chair is now reissued in collaboration with &Tradition. Its rattan seat rests on a graceful, oiled-oak frame, and, for the first time, its iconic cross-shaped leg joint features a contrasting solid-walnut insert. £1,205 (andtradition.com).

Best in glass

British handblown-glass studio Rothschild & Bickers is showing its first home-accessories range at Decorex (9-12 October). The brand's distinctive glass styles have been translated into a range of vases – our favourite is 'Mineral', with its delicate, marble-like pattern. £770 (rothschildbickers.com).

Gilt complex

Dress up your hallway with the gilded steel frame and sleek drawers of Julian Chichester's 'Bay' console table, which will add an elegant touch to any space. It's available in hand-finished bronze, but we love the faux-shagreen version (pictured), which has gloss-ivory vellum accents. £3,945 (julianchichester.com).

Vote weave

Raffia, seagrass and wicker meet punchy hues and upscale leather detailing in autumn's most stylish storage solutions

- 1 'Chromatic' leather trim basket, £5,750, Hermès (hermes.com)
- 2 'Chatai' basket, £65, Toast (toa.st)
- 3 'Bongo' basket, £52, The Basket Room (thebasketroom.com)
- 4 Leather-trim basket by Loewe, £2,300, Matchesfashion (matchesfashion.com)
- 5 Kenyan basket, £50, Oklahoma (okla.co.uk)